VOICE FEATURES

Every week The Voice features articles written by AU students on a wide range of topics including politics, news, education, health, science, and student life.

Regular columns - something for everyone:

Dear Sandra - The Voice advice column. Got a problem? Ask Sandra.

Canadian Fedwatch - weekly coverage of government and education news from across the nation.

Student Fiction - short stories, poems, brief plays, you name it. The Voice prints student fiction in all forms and genres.

Plus: education news, study and writing tips, film and book reviews, nature and ecology, health and lifestyles, and much, much more.

Are you an aspiring writer? Do you want to share your AU experience with other students?

Write for the Voice - it's fun, it's great experience, and it pays!

UNIVERSITY VOICE

Your source for university and students' union news.

Press from Athabasca University, and stories and columns provided by AU's publication, The Insider.

Keep up to date with the activities of AUSU, your students' union, and its many clubs and committees.

Can't find the time to attend any of AU-SU's council meetings? Read our coverage for an overview of what was discussed, and what's coming up.

Look to The Voice for news on AU's proposed policy changes, changes to government programs that affect education, and how AU is adapting to changing education trends. Find out how you can make your Voice heard.

Read X-Press to learn about new courses, programs and opportunities at AU and other universities across the country. Keep track of education trends and what other schools are offering, so you can make the most of your learning.

YOUR VOICE

Learn more about your fellow AU students in The Voice through our student-centered columns.

AU Profiles - interviews with AU students and grads. Find out how other AU students are succeeding, and what they find most challenging about distance learning. Hear from recent grads, and benefit from their advice. You may find out about someone just like you!

Sounding Off - have your say in 400 words or less. No holds barred; say what's on your mind! Topic suggestions are welcome.

Classifieds - buy, sell, find or meet - Voice classified are free to AU students.

Letters to the Editor - Comment on an article, feature or column, or share some extra information on any of our article topics. Send us letter, and let us know if we can print it. It's that easy.

If these columns don't provide the forum you need, write an article for publication in The Voice. There is no better opportunity for first time writers. All topics considered...
